Amaranths Will Meet

The officers and members of Lomita Court No. 61, Order of Amaranths will meet this evening in Torrance Masonic Temple with Honored Lady Emma Evans, secretary and Sir Knight Frederick Cook, treasurer as the honored members. Officers from the several courts in the area will occupy the stations, as a courtesy to Lomita Court officers.

Royal Matron Gladys Mother-sell and Sir Knight Clyde Satterfield will preside during the business session, the principal item being the election and installation of a member to the station of conductress, recently vacated by the resignation of Honored Lady Lucilla Johnson.

Honored Lady Marjorie A. Colburn, grand conductress, of the Grand Court of California, will be present to greet her new conductress.

Refreshments will be prepared and served by Honored Lady Kathleen Ritko and a committee of honored ladies and sir knights.

Tenants Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cullow, owners of the Elms Trailer park, 2103 W. 245th st., recently entertained the tenants of the park with a turkey dinner. A sound color film of China was shown by Reverend R. Rothgeb, a missionary who left December 20 for Singapore.

NANNA-BASKINS WEDDING PERFORMED IN SAN JOSE

Festive colors of red and green were predominate at the pre-Christmas wedding of Miss Anita Marie Nanna, San Jose, and George William Baskins, Torrance, November 24, 2:30 p.m., at St. Christopher Catholic church, San Jose. Father John Klopfer officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Nanna, 2863 Westgate ave., San Jose, was escorted to the altar decorated with white stocks, by her father.

Her gown was of chantilly lace and two layers of nylon tulle over white satin, with a cathedral length train. The high collared bodice was long sleeved and her satin headpiece, embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, held the finger tip, lace embroidered veil in place. She carried a distinctive bouquet of stephanotis and lilly of the valley offset with one red rose and mounted on a white Bible.

In identical princess line gowns of jade green taffeta with matching hat and gloves, the maid of honor and two bridesmaids preceded the bride in the ceremony.

Miss Marie Russo, cousin to the bride and a San Pedro resident, was maid of honor. Attendants were Miss Marie Sue Nanna, sister of the bride and Miss Beverly Baskins, the groom's sister. They carried colonial style bouquets of yellow carnations.

Miss Linda Miceli immediately preceded the bride as flower girl in a light green, full length taffeta dress. She carried a basket of yellow carnations. Paul J. Nanna Jr. was ring bearer and Paul J. Nanna Sr., the bride's oldest brother, acted as best man in the double ring ceremony. The bride's other brother, who was married in June flew in from Chicago, Illinois, with his wife for the occasion.

The bride's mother attended her daughter's wedding in a light blue lace over satin dress with a pink hat and gloves and matching blue satin shoes. She wore a pink rose corsage and a fur stole. Mrs. Baskins, mother of the groom, chose a beige embroidered full dress with matching hat, shoes and gloves for her son's wedding. She wore a yellow rose corsage and a fur stole.

A breakfast was held prior to the wedding and a champagne toast immediately after the wedding at the bride's home. Approximately 100 attended the 6:30 p.m. reception at the Hawaiian Gardens, San Jose.

The bride's going away outfit was a tan tuxedo suit trimmed with rust and light green velvet, green velvet hat and gloves. She wore a champagne colored blouse and rust colored pumps and carried a rust leather handbag.

The couple left for a honeymoon in Los Angeles and Mexico and are presently living at 711 N. 1st st., San Jose. Currently employed at Lockheed.
